

Tim Sander

Senior Vice President of Cloud Services

Tim Sander, Senior Vice President of Cloud Services, heads global IT operations for Applied's Cloud Hosting and corporate IT services. He began his Applied career in 1987 as a systems technician and has held numerous technical leadership roles, helping Applied to evaluate and transition to new technologies. Today Sander is responsible for the company's corporate IT services and oversees the operations of Applied's four global data centers.