

Connecting to Insurers

Applied Home offers the largest range of products with the most simplistic administration.

Applied Home features an extensive panel made up of more than 20 major insurers, underwriters and niche product providers offer a wide range of products for residential home owner, landlord to-let and unoccupied property schemes.

A refined question set allows users to quickly compare prices while also making sure all rating factors have been taken into account. Policy fulfillment and documentation production follow through logically from the quotes results allowing all further information to be collected in a product specific manner.

Integration with the Applied Relay platform makes policy fulfillment and documentation production flow logically, allowing all further information to be collected in a product specific manner.

In the coming year, Ireland's leading insurers will trade up to 95 percent of their broker-led household insurance via Applied's Home panel.

Enables your business to
