Applied eQuote

Grow your client base with Applied eQuote

Whether you want to offer quotes only, quote and buy or complete online quoting self-service facilities, Applied eQuote is a perfect solution for Motor, Home and Commercial Vehicle insurance.

Seamlessly integrated with your Applied Relay back office, Applied eQuote creates an online presence to trade your products and allows customers to look after themselves – anytime, anywhere. Applied eQuote is fully managed and supported by Applied Relay and can be deployed quickly within your existing website. The application is hosted on a resilient infrastructure that automates policy binding and document production. Documents can be emailed on demand, and secure login is available for previously stored quotes. With Applied eQuote, prospects, clients and policy information is instantly available offline, enabling more effective cross-selling to existing and prospective customers.

Applied eQuote provides your business with:

- A quick quote solution for motor, home and commercial vehicle insurance.
- An analysis of successful online activities and the ability to batch produce complete document packs with ease.
- A secure login to review and download all documents and view a complete portfolio.
- The ability to collect payments 24/7 to enable more effective cross-selling.
- A fully customisable dashboard that includes Google Analytics, Site Activity and Leads Management.

Enables your business to

- Have an online presence to trade products 24/7
- Provide superior customer self-service
- More effectively cross-sell to existing and prospective customers
